

"Notice under section 21(2) of the Building and Construction Industry Payments Act 2004 (Queensland).

In response to this company's payment claim dated for $..... your company failed to provide a payment schedule within the time allowed by the Building and Construction Industry Payments Act 2004 (Queensland).

As a consequence your company became liable to pay the whole amount of the claim on the due date. The whole amount has not been paid.

Our company has elected to apply for adjudication of the payment claim. Your company has 5 business days in which to serve a payment schedule or pay the payment claim in full. If, within that time, your company fails to pay the whole amount, this company will proceed to adjudication. If your company also fails to serve a payment schedule, your company will be barred from lodging an adjudication response [see section 24(3) of the Act]."
