Adjudication Application Guidance Notes

This information is necessarily brief. Further details regarding preparation of the Adjudication Application may be reviewed at <https://www.adjudicate.com.au/act/served/claimant-disputes-payment-schedule-prepares-adjudication-application>.

The claimant should not rely upon this information, but should study the Act and if necessary, consider seeking expert advice. A copy of the Act is available at http://www.adjudicate.com.au/pdf/act\_2009\_Act.pdf.

1. Written Submissions

This is an opportunity for the claimant to demonstrate an entitlement to payment. A written submission by the claimant may evidence the following:

- (a) that the claimant carried out under the construction contract work or provided related goods and services for which payment is claimed;
- (b) that the amount claimed is due and unpaid and how it is calculated; and
- (c) the value of the work or related goods and services for which payment is claimed.

The submission should also respond to the reasons, if any, given by the respondent for withholding payment and should provide evidence or arguments to refute the respondent's reasons for withholding payment.

2. Payment Claim

A full copy of the Payment Claim must be provided within the adjudication application.

Refer to section 15 of the Act for clarification of the meaning of the term "Payment Claim".

Further details may be reviewed at: <https://www.adjudicate.com.au/act/start/claimant-prepares-payment-claim>

Payment Claim evidence of service

Written confirmation of the date and method by which the claimant served the Payment Claim on the respondent. For example, a facsimile transmission report, copy of email message, postal details including postal address, etc.

3. Section 19(2) Notice (if applicable)

If the section 19(2) Notice (Notice) was served on the Respondent, a full copy of the Notice must be provided within the adjudication application.

Further details may be reviewed at: <https://www.adjudicate.com.au/act/not-served/respondent-prepares-payment-schedule>

Section 19(2) Notice evidence of service

Written confirmation of the date and method by which the claimant served the Section 19(2) Notice on the respondent. For example, a facsimile transmission report, copy of email message, postal details including postal address, etc.

4. Payment Schedule (if served)

5. Construction Contract

Attach a copy of the contract. If the contract or agreement is wholly or partly oral, set out the precise terms of the oral agreement, when it was made and the named person who entered the contract on behalf of the respondent. Attach a copy of any emails, correspondence or paid invoices supporting the oral agreement.

6. Supporting Documents

If possible, obtain witness statements or other technical reports, test results, photographs, invoices (from suppliers, quality assurance statements, if applicable, evidence of payment(s) to subcontractors) or other documentation which supports the claim, attach these as numbered attachments. This is particularly important for larger claims. These attachments should show that the work was properly done and completed in line with the contract and/or that related goods and services were provided as per the progress claim. Statutory declarations are not necessary, because an adjudicator cannot test the contents of a statutory declaration, they are given no greater weight than unsworn witness statements.

7. Other important information

Timeframes provided by the Act

The times provided in the Act for service of documents are strict. If the times are not observed exactly, the adjudication application may result in an Adjudicator not having jurisdiction to decide the value of the Payment Claim. The Act's Dictionary states that business day does not include 27, 28, 29, 30 or 31 December.

Common Pitfalls

Adjudicate Today has managed thousands of adjudication applications and we have learnt many lessons. For a list of issues that claimants must get right, please visit our website at <https://www.adjudicate.com.au/act/start/common-claimant-pitfalls>

Further Submissions

Unless invited by the Adjudicator (see s.23(4)(a) of the Act), the claimant and the respondent have no right to make further submissions after lodging their respective adjudication application and adjudication response. Consequently, it is most important that the initial submissions are complete.

Documents submitted in hard copy

The Act does not provide a requirement for adjudicators to make documents submitted available for return to claimants at the close of an adjudication. As it is ultimately at the adjudicator's discretion whether documents lodged are made available for return to the claimant, claimants are advised not to rely upon the adjudication documents being made available for return. In any instance, any party lodging adjudication documents is generally advised to both:

1. as a matter of caution retain a copy of any documents lodged with Adjudicate Today; and
2. consider submitting copies of documents to the adjudicator rather than originals unless absolutely necessary.

If a claimant does hope to have documents returned, it is encouraged to include a note to the adjudicator expressing interest in having the documents returned at the close of the adjudication.

*Disclaimer re printing of hard copy of adjudication application

You acknowledge and agree to provide to Adjudicate Today two (2) hard copies of any electronic files uploaded to Adjudicate Today within one (1) business day. If hard copies are not provided and Adjudicate Today determines in its absolute discretion to print the files, we will take reasonable care to ensure accurate printing of electronic files. However, we make no warranty or representation, express or implied that the printing will be accurate or complete. Therefore, Adjudicate Today shall not be liable in any manner whatsoever for direct, indirect, incidental, consequential or punitive damage resulting from errors in the printing of the electronic files. Adjudicate Today shall not be liable in any way for possible errors or omissions in the contents of the printing. The cost of the printing will be charged to you at commercial printing rates plus staff time at the hourly rate of $55.00 (incl. GST) for all time necessary and incidental to the printing. The hard copies of this adjudication application may be lodged with any Adjudicate Today state office.
