Payment Claim

Notes for guidance of the Claimant

1. The work or related goods or services in respect of which the Payment Claim is made must be detailed in the attachments. The attachments may include information supporting the claimed amount. Examples of such information are:
 - a. Statements detailing the extent of the work completed;
 - b. Completion certificates;
 - c. Delivery dockets;
 - d. Photographs;
 - e. Other Contract documentation requirements where applicable.
2. The Payment Claim must contain a statement along the lines of 'This is a Payment Claim made under the Building and Construction Industry (Security of Payment) Act 2009 (ACT).'
3. The Payment Claim may be served in accordance with the contract or may be served as provided under the Act:
 - a. by delivering it to the respondent personally; or
 - b. by lodging it during normal business hours at the respondent's ordinary place of business; or
 - c. by sending it by post or facsimile addressed to the respondent's ordinary place of business;
4. The Payment Claim is not served until it is served on the respondent in the correct manner as detailed above. It is important that evidence of service is kept, for example, facsimile receipts or courier dockets.
5. If the respondent wishes to dispute liability to pay in whole or part of the amount claimed, the respondent must serve upon the claimant a Payment Schedule within 10 business days after being served with a Payment Claim or a shorter period if prescribed under the contract.
6. If the respondent fails to serve a Payment Schedule within 10 business days after being served with a Payment Claim or a shorter time if prescribed under the contract, the respondent must pay the full amount of the Payment Claim. Payment is to be made on or before the due date as defined in the Act.
7. If the respondent does not pay the full amount by the due date, the claimant has a right to apply for adjudication under the Act.
8. Amounts paid in respect of a Payment Claim are taken to have been paid on account. It should be noted that payment does not constitute an admission by the respondent that work has been done or goods or services provided to the claimed value. An amount paid may have to be repaid if the claimant was not entitled to payment under the terms of the relevant construction contract.
